

LISI selected in the “Choiseul Conquérants” 2024 ranking for the second time

Paris, December 18, 2024.

The LISI Group is proud to announce its selection, for the second year running, in the prestigious “Choiseul Conquérants 2024” ranking, revealed in “La Tribune” a French economic and financial newspaper. Ranked among « The spearheads of strategic autonomy », we confirm our central role in the revitalization of French industry.

The Choiseul Institut is an independent think tank dedicated to the analysis of major economic, political and societal issues, as well as those associated with the challenges of good global governance.

This ranking highlights companies of intermediate size that play a key role in France's reindustrialization. Particularly active in strategic sectors such as aerospace, defense and healthcare, these companies help to strengthen the country's economic sovereignty. By investing in innovative technologies while preserving traditional know-how, they contribute to France's international competitiveness.

This distinction is an honor for our Group and reflects our ongoing commitment to Industry 4.0, as well as our ability to adapt to market changes and customer expectations. Through our investments in advanced technological solutions, we contribute to the consolidation of the French industrial ecosystem.

« We are very proud to be included in the fifth edition of the Choiseul Conquérants 2024 ranking, produced by the Choiseul Institute. These prestigious ranking honors our ability to adapt in a constantly changing world. » says Emmanuel Viellard, CEO of LISI.
